1. A request for continued examination under 37 CFR 1.114, including the fee set forth in 37 CFR 1.17(e), was filed in this application after final rejection. Since this application is eligible for continued examination under 37 CFR 1.114, and the fee set forth in 37 CFR 1.17(e) has been timely paid, the finality of the previous Office action has been withdrawn pursuant to 37 CFR 1.114. Applicant's submission filed on March 1, 2007 has been entered.
2. The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negated by the manner in which the invention was made.
3. Claims 1-3 and 6 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Sir Redhawk in view of "Freezing Lasagna" and Nilsson as set forth on pages 2-4 of the August 12, 2005 Office action. A complete description of the primary reference is found on page 2 of the June 2, 2004 Office action.
4. Claim 4 is rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Sir Redhawk in view of "Freezing Lasagna" and Nilsson as applied to claims 1-3 and 6 above, and further in view of Mattson as set forth on page 5 of the August 12, 2005 Office action.
5. Applicant's arguments filed March 1, 2007 have been fully considered but they are not persuasive. The fact that Sir Redhawk's product has a sauce layer on the bottom, as applicant contends, is not a detracting feature since the pasta layer in Sir

Art Unit: 1761

Redhawk extends around another pasta layer, which is all that is required by applicant's claims. Applicant's claims do not require that each sauce layer has a pasta layer both above and below it.
